COURT DECIDES FOR M. H. POND IN LIEN ACTION

The Adams County court Friday afternoon handed down its decision in the mechanics lien action brought by Marvin H. Pond, trading as All-Weather Builders, S. Washington St. against J. F. and Margaret F. Foy, Gettysburg R. 2, directing that Mr. and Mrs. Foy pay Pond $1,380.31.

The decision came after testimony was completed before the court in a case tried without a jury. Pond had placed a mechanics lien for $2,140.69 claiming that amount was owed him for materials and labor furnished in the construction of the Foy home.

Mr. and Mrs. Foy appeared from the lien, declaring there had been certain changes in the contract and that the contract had been breached. They claimed to have paid $32,911.43 to Pond and to have had to spend $3,556.83 for others to complete the work. The original contract called for construction of the home for $36,000. The Foy's claimed credits of $1,534.41 for various items.

Recommend Divorce

A stipulation of counsel between Attorney Donald G. Oyley, representing Muriel Becker, Midway, and Attorney Ronald J. Hagerman, representing the Midway Volunteer Fire Co. No. 1 was approved by the court. It extends the time for filing an answer in the action in ejectment brought by M. Becker against the fire company.

Attorney Franklin R. Bigham presented a master's report in the divorce of Viola May (Carbaugh) Shuyler, Orrtanna, against Charles William Shuyler, Cashtown, recommending the divorce on grounds of desertion.

DECISION IN ASSAULT CASE IS WITHHELD

Decision on charges of assault and battery lodged against a picket at the Hanover Made Furniture Co. plant and another man by two employees of the J. D. Leonard trucking terminal, Cross Keys, is being withheld until November 6, it was announced Friday afternoon at a hearing before Justice of the Peace Claude Straley, New Oxford.

The accused, Francis Kuhn, Hanover, the picket, and James D. Miller, McSherrystown, who did not testify, were released under $500 continued bond.

The trucking company employees, Wilbur L. Laughman and James R. Ditzler, both of Gettysburg, testified they were assaulted October 23 about 2 p.m. at the trucking company's terminal.

Laughman and Ditzler said the two offenders drove into the company parking lot. Both Laughman and Ditzler testified they were not struck by Kuhn or Miller but declared each used indecent language during the incident.

Trucks from the Leonard establishment haul freight to and from the furniture plant.

Members of the Local 465, Upholsterers Union, organized the picket line at the plant September 30 after negotiations between the furniture company and the union failed to settle a dispute.

The plant continues in operation.

Emmitsburg Motel Sold For $110,000

In what is reported to be the largest real estate transaction in the history of Emmitsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton A. Haines, Mt. Airy, Wednesday purchased for $110,000 the Bucher Motel property from Mr. and Mrs. Curtis R. Bucher, Emmitsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Haines in July, 1958, bought the Bucher restaurant business for $25,000, and have been operating it successfully. The motel property for which immediate possession is given consists of a two-story building, with accommodations for tourists and living quarters for the owners. The property also includes 12 modern, air conditioned motel units.

According to George M. Chapline, who handled the transaction, Mr. and Mrs. Haines plan eventually to enlarge the property. Mr. and Mrs. Bucher have no immediate plans.

The motel and restaurant are located on S. Seton Ave., Emmitsburg.

Wilson Shultz, 45, Biglerville, an employee of the Inland Container Co., Biglerville, was treated at the Warner Hospital for the removal of a foreign body from his left upper arm.

Cannot Find Airliner That Crashed Friday; 27 Aboard

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — A two-engine Piedmont Airlines plane with 27 persons aboard, moments away from a landing, crashed Friday night near this college city.

Rescue teams that scoured a wide area in the rain during the night failed to turn up a single clue as to the whereabouts of the DC-3, en route from Washington to Roanoke, Va., with a scheduled stop here.

"We haven't been able to develop anything all night," said Maj. Charles A. Rausch, Civil Air Patrol commander for the central Virginia area, early today. "This plane apparently didn't burn or explode, unless it did so a long way from here. There are no reports we can develop of fire or blast."

Grant Search Operation

"We were hoping that someone might walk out of the crash,"

A giant search operation was planned, weather permitting. Four helicopters and a number of planes were assigned for the search.

Authorities believe the ship went down soon after it radioed the airport tower here for landing instructions about 8:30 Friday night, EST. The craft, traveling about 150 m.p.h., was about six minutes flying time from the airport, Rausch said.

Old Torah Scroll Given To Arab Catholic By Elderly Jew Years Ago Now In U.S.

By TOM HENSHAW

AP Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Every now and then some small incident crops up to indicate that some Arabs and Jews can make a respectful contact, even in the embittered Middle East.

It was like that in the case of the Oriental Torah.

Rabbi Elmer Berger, executive vice president of the Anti-Zionist American Council for Judaism and a frequent visitor to the Middle East, tells the story this way:

Antoine Albina is an Arab and a Roman Catholic. He is also a refugee from Israeli Jerusalem, who nurses a bitter hatred for Israel.

Helped Elderly Jew

One day, 11 years ago, when the Israeli and Jordanian sectors of the Holy City were exchanging populations, Albina noticed an elderly Jewish acquaintance struggling under the weight of his personal belongings.

Albina offered to help carry some of his bundles as far as the State police and Civil Air Patrol teams combed three Virginia counties, centering the ground hunt near the hamlet of Ruckersville.

There were two unconfirmed reports that residents had heard the sound of a low-flying plane and then what could have been an explosion.

No rain was falling at the time of the plane's disappearance and aircraft had a 1,500-foot ceiling and 10 mile visibility. Later in the evening a drizzling rain began.

The flight 349, began in Washington, D.C. It was to have continued to Roanoke. There were 24 passengers and 3 crew members aboard.

Hold Passenger List

Piedmont authorities withheld release of the passenger list pending next of kin notification.

CAP teams from several Virginia areas converged on the area. Air Force authorities planned to begin an air search today.

About 100 CAP members and another 100 volunteers participated in the search during the night. Four mobile ground units toured the area as the search parties ran down leads.

demarcation line. The old man thrust a heavy, bulky package into Albina's arms and asked him: "Please take this and keep it for me as a trust."

Albina took the package home and opened it. It turned out to be a Torah scroll and its ark, obviously Oriental in design and probably several hundred years old.

Renew Acquaintance

Last summer, while Rabbi Berger was visiting the Middle East on a lecture tour, he renewed acquaintances with Albina. The pair, Arab and Jew, had developed a distant respect for each other.

Albina, despairing of ever finding the old man, brought out the aged Torah scroll and ark and passed the trust on to Rabbi Berger and the American Council for Judaism.

The scroll and ark are in America now, probably destined for a permanent home at the Lakeside Congregation for Reformed Judaism, synagogue of Clarence L. Coleman Jr., president of the ACJ, in Highland Park, Ill.

Children Will Look For Headless Horseman Tonight

KINDERHOOK, N.Y. (AP) —

'Tis Halloween, and while ghosts and goblins terrorize the rest of the country tonight, children in the Hudson Valley will listen for the Headless Horseman.

For the lofty hills along the drowsy Hudson River conceal the locale of Washington Irving's famous "Legend of Sleepy Hollow."

Despite the fact that Irving named Tarrytown as the scene of his tale, residents of Kinderhook stoutly maintain the author drew his characters from this neighborhood.

As a young man, they say, Irving visited this area and later used local personalities to people his frightening but comical story of Ichabod Crane, the scarecrow schoolteacher who wooed and lost

Katrina Van Tassel to Brom Bones.

Haunted houses, haunted bridges and haunted fields prelude the area's superstitions. But the commander in chief of all the nighttime prowlers is the renowned Headless Horseman, whose encounter with Ichabod has become a part of American folklore.

Of the horseman, Irving wrote: "It is said by some to be the ghost of a Hessian trooper, whose head had been carried away by a cannon-ball in some nameless battle during the Revolutionary War; and who is ever and anon seen by the country folk, hurrying along in the gloom of night, as if on the wings of the wind."

A light rain had just let up as the President walked from the hospital. He had hoped to get in a round of golf, but the weather appeared to have washed that out at least temporarily.

President In Good Condition

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower completed his annual physical checkup today and a physician reported the results were the best the President ever had.

Smiling broadly as he checked out of Walter Reed Army Medical Center at 8:55 a.m. EST, Eisenhower himself put it this way in referring to the outcome: "It's so good I'd like to go back oftener."

"The best we ever had," summed up Lt. Gen. Leonard D. Heaton, the Army's surgeon general.

Asked how the President's health was, Heaton added: "Very good, very good."

The Eisenhower and Heaton comments were made to newsmen as the President and the Army officer stood on the porch of the hospital.

Walter Reed physicians planned to issue a brief official report later in the day on the state of Eisenhower's health.

A light rain had just let up as the President walked from the hospital. He had hoped to get in a round of golf, but the weather appeared to have washed that out at least temporarily.

HEADS OF FIVE ALLIED GROUPS COMING NOV. 21

National heads of the five allied organizations of the Grand Army of the Republic will be here November 21 to honor the GAR at the annual Remembrance Day program to be held at the Woolson statue in Ziegler's Grove on Hancock Ave.

The national officers, all of whom will place wreaths at the Woolson monument, include Harold Arnold, Coventry, R. I., commander-in-chief of the Sons of Union Veterans; Mrs. Beatrice S. Henry R. Early and Col. Thomas Allen, Flor's Lutheran Church, McKnightstown; and Dr. W. R. Samuel and Dr. Lewis Menges, retired.

Parade Tonight At York Springs

The annual Lions-sponsored Halloween parade at York Springs will be held Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock with nearly $200 in prizes and with refreshments to be served the children at the fire hall after the procession. The rain date for the celebration is next Monday.

Jaack Hershey, chairman of the Lions' committee that is arranging for the parade, said three high school bands will march in the column. They will be the Fairfield, New Oxford and Bermudian Springs bands.

From the Slavic Scientific & Technical Library, of Boulder, Colo., has come the following self-explanatory letter signed by its director, Charles L. Adams:

"The October 15 issue of the Russian newspaper Sovetskaya Rossiya carries a long article titled 'After Camp David' which contains a couple of paragraphs that may interest you."

"The author, V. Parkhit'ko, says that despite Pennsylvania's 'dry law,' American correspondents were observed buying alcoholic drinks in a Gettysburg restaurant. Parkhit'ko manages to give the incident a slight peace offensive twist."

"If you would care to have a translation of this excerpt, we will be glad to send it to you for our minimum fee of $3.50."

Our answer: Not interested.

We have often been asked why the newspaper professions is referred to as the "Fourth Estate."

In 1770 Thomas Burke stood in the House, pointed to the newspaper reporters in the gallery and shouted: "Yonder (Continued On Page 2)"

ROY RINKER, HAMPTON, DIES

Roy Clifford Rinker, 52, Hampton, died at 10:25 o'clock Friday evening in the Hanover Hospital.

He had been ill for a number of years and had been hospitalized for the last five weeks.

He was born in Toms Brooks, Va., and was the son of the late Hugh W. and Emma Rau Rinker. He had been employed by the American Chain and Cable Co., York.

Interment will be in New Oxford Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Monday evening at 7 o'clock.

High Court To Hear Plea On Steel Strike Tuesday

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court has agreed to hear the United Steelworkers' Union's appeal of a Taft-Hartley law injunction that would send the striking steelworkers back to work for 60 days.

This means the 109-day-old strike will continue at least until next week, when the court makes its decision on whether to let the injunction stand. The court set Tuesday for oral arguments.

The high court's action Friday was a triumph for the union, which is attacking the basic constitutionality of the Taft-Hartley strike - ending procedures. This process has never had a review by the Supreme Court in its 12 years of existence.

Affects Health, Safety

The government contends the strike is affecting national health and safety. It fought the union's request for a review, saying the constitutional arguments are "clearly without merit" and "there is no need for further review by this court."

County And Local Offices To Be Filled Tuesday; 3 Amendments, Library Tax

COUNTY COUPLE WED TODAY IN XAVIER CHURCH

Miss Donna Marie Schriver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald E. Schriver, R. 5, and Robert Leroy Brewer, son of Samuel D. Brewer, R. 2, and the late Venetia Brewer, were married today at 9 o'clock in St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Anthony Kane, pastor, before an altar decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. George F. Eberhart, organist, played the wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of nylon ruffles worn over a hoop. The gown featured a round neckline bordered by sequins and had long pointed sleeves ending in points over her hands. Her illusion veil fell from a tiara of pearls and sequins. She carried a colonial bouquet of white carnations.

Sister Is Attendant

Miss Patricia Schriver, R. 5, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown similar to the bride in pale blue with nylon ruffles. She wore white accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Samuel Lewis Brewer, R. 2, brother of the groom, was the best man. The ushers were Ronald Hess, Orrtanna R. 1, and George Glenn, Fairfield R. 2.

The mother of the bride wore a pale blue knit suit with winter white accessories and a fur stole.

A reception for 100 guests was held in St. Francis Xavier Hall immediately following the ceremony. The couple then left for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination. For her traveling ensemble the bride chose a teal blue wool sheath with white accessories. Upon their return they will reside at 32 E. Middle St.

The bride is a graduate of Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown, and is employed by the First National Bank.

The groom is a graduate of Gettysburg High School and is also employed by the First National Bank.

Out-of-town guests were from Reading, Philadelphia and Lexington Park, Md.

TRAVEL GROUP RENAMES LANE

Walter B. Lane, proprietor of Lane's Studio, was re-elected for his third term as president of the Gettysburg Travel Council at a meeting of the board of directors at the Lamp Post Tea Room, Carlisle St., Thursday.

Kenneth Dick, proprietor of Fantasyland, was elected vice president and Mrs. Robert P. Snyder was named secretary-treasurer.

The directors paid tribute to Carl Schutt, secretary of the Travel Council for the last year, who died suddenly earlier this week.

Preliminary discussion on the budget for 1960 indicated the board plans to raise $10,000 for operation of the council during the coming year.

Plans were made to present a financial statement and outline of the 1959 operations to all members at the start of the annual finance campaign which will begin late this month.

Councilmen, School Directors

All districts will select at least one auditor. One district, Tyrone Twp., will name two.

York Springs, New Oxford, Fairfield, East Berlin, Biglerville, Arundelville and Abbottstown will each elect four councilmen; Benderville, Littlestown and McSherrystown will each name three councilmen and Gettysburg will select six.

Local Teachers Attend Conference

Mrs. Charles Sprigg and Miss Jean Biggs are attending the Pennsylvania Classroom Teachers' Conference today through Sunday at the Bedford Springs Hotel, Bedford, as delegates from the Gettysburg branch of the Pennsylvania State Education Association.

Five hundred teachers will attend the conference on the theme, "Time To Teach." Dr. Clara Cockerille, assistant superintendent of Armstrong County, will keynote the Saturday morning discussion which will deal with "Expanding the Curriculum." On Saturday afternoon, Richard Batchelder, Newtonville, Mass., NEA president of the department of classroom teachers, will address the conference.

NEW THADDEUS STEVENS BOOK IS PUBLISHED

Gettysburg residents are mentioned prominently in the list of persons whose assistance is acknowledged by Fawn M. Brodie, Pacific Palisades, California, written in the foreword to her new book "Thaddeus Stevens, Scourge of the South," published by W. W. Norton and Co., Inc., N. Y.

Mrs. Brodie, who spent some time here going through the files of The Compiler and The Star and Sentinel at The Gettysburg Times office to gather material on the life of Stevens, paid tribute to the late Miss Mary Louise Callahan, who at the time was social editor of The Times and assisted Mrs. Brodie in checking the old files.

She also pays tribute to John H. Knickerbocker, historian of Gettysburg College, then librarian there, and to the late Dr. Robert N. Fortenbaugh, then head of the history department at Gettysburg College.

Others Mentioned

Arthur Weaver Jr., Gettysburg R. 4, prominent in the Adams County Historical Society, was praised for doing "valuable detective work" in ferreting out manuscripts and information pertaining to Stevens.

Norbert L. Oyler, Gettysburg R. D., is commended for permitting reproduction of material from a legal file relating to "Dinah," the Negro slave girl of Stevens who was found drowned and apparently murdered in a shallow well here while Stevens was a lawyer and editor of the "Anti-Masonic Star." The material appears to be a manuscript listing the possible testimony against Stevens in connection with the death, which never came to trial. A future president of the U. S. James Buchanan, then an attorney, refused to serve as an attorney against Stevens.

The late Elsie Singmaster Lewars is mentioned for her "I Speak For Thaddeus Stevens" book as well as her notes on file with the Adams County Historical Society which is listed as a "fruitful source of information."

The 448-page book gives a detailed account of Stevens' life.

The couple will reside in Norfolk, Va., in January.

LOCAL PHOTOS IN EXHIBITION

Eight members of the Gettysburg Photographic Society were honored Friday evening by the Washington County Museum of Fine Arts, Hagerstown, in having their work selected for a month-long exhibition beginning Sunday.

Dr. Frank Hewetson, Gettysburg, president of the society, received a first place award in the pictorial class for his presentation of "Toll of the Sea." He also received an honorable mention award.

A third place award went to Dr. Francis Mason, Gettysburg, for his offering of "Eastern Gate." In addition, he received an honorable mention award.

Honorable mention awards were also presented to: Paul G. Pensinger, Robert Ziegler, and Dave Garfinkle, all of Gettysburg. Joseph Kendeheart, Gettysburg, had a print selected in the portrait class. His subject was a cat. Dr. Charles A. Sloan, Gettysburg, had two photographs selected for exhibition in the pictorial class, while Miss Violet Seabold, Harrisburg, a member of the society, had one photograph selected.

The competition was open to residents of the Cumberland Valley and Gettysburg and Frederick. The Gettysburg Photographic Society, founded in 1940, has consistently accounted for major representation in the event.

Youth Injured When His Car Overturns

Samuel L. Long, 19, Gettysburg R. 3, escaped with minor injuries, state police reported, when his car overturned a half mile north of here on the Biglerville Rd. at 1:30 o'clock this morning.

The officers said the youth was driving north and negotiated a left turn in the road, then lost control of the vehicle. The car went off the road and rolled over, causing $1,500 damage to the vehicle.

Removed to the Warner Hospital in the Gettysburg Fire Department ambulance, Long was treated for nose and shoulder injuries.

The dial name for the United Telephone Company exchange will be EDGEWOOD. The cut-over will be made soon after December 15, John Caldwell, local manager, said today. He said that EDGEWOOD had been selected a long time ago. The name LINCOLN had been suggested, he said, but there was some opposition to using the name of the martyred president as an exchange name. EDGEWOOD will be easy to dial . . . E and D are on the digit 3.

Nearly one of every three college and university students in Pennsylvania is enrolled at the University of Pennsylvania, the University of Pittsburgh, or Temple University. A third of all the college-level teachers in the state are on the faculties of these three state-aided institutions.

Almost half of Pennsylvania's physicians and lawyers, a majority of its dentists, and most of its veterinarians were educated at these universities.

One of every four full-time undergraduates at these institutions is receiving scholarship aid. Many of these—and hundreds more—are earning part of their needs through part-time work.

More than half the master's and doctor's degrees awarded in Pennsylvania in the arts and sciences are conferred by these three universities.

These universities receive about one-fourth of the Commonwealth's appropriations for higher education.

When Abraham Lincoln was in the White House, two rival hat manufacturers, eager for publicity, put their best efforts into tall silk hats to give to the President. By an awkward coincidence, they showed up with their gifts at the same time.

While the hatters awaited comment, exchanging defiant glances, Lincoln looked from one hat to the other. Then he said solemnly, "Gentlemen, they mutually excel each other."

PAID $10,000 TO PLACE MAN ON QUIZ SHOW

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Max Hess, the owner of a large department store, said Friday night that he paid $10,000 to help get a former employee on the television quiz show, "64,000 Question."

He explained this to a reporter in revealing that he had been subpoenaed to appear Monday before a House subcommittee investigating the rigging of quiz shows.

"It was worth every cent of the money," said Hess, who is president of Hess Brothers Department Store, "because it proved to be a highly talked about program which focused the public eye on Hess Brothers and the City of Allentown."

Hess said he was subpoenaed to appear Monday before the Legislative Oversight Subcommittee to explain the role he played in getting Kenneth Hoffer on the quiz show.

Hoffer, of Reading, appeared once on the Columbia Broadcasting Co. quiz show, in August, 1955. He missed his third question—for $512—and went home without a nickel's winnings.

Hess gave this sequence of events:

Hoffer, a former buyer for the department store, had attempted to get on the "64,000 Question" by writing letters of application. The letters went unanswered. Finally, through another Hess employee, David Gottlieb, of Allentown, contact was made. Gottlieb learned that it would cost $10,000 in cash to make arrangements for Hoffer's appearance.

member to their three-man board of supervisors.

Nearly all districts will name school directors, one each in all but Gettysburg, where three are to be named; and none in Ardenstville, Bendersville, Biglerville and Tyrone. Under the new set-up for school district in the Upper Adams area, the number of directors is being reduced and as a result only Butler Twp. will elect a director this year for the area.

Six In 10 May Vote

Constables are to be named by East Berlin, Fairfield, Highland, Liberty, Littlestown First Ward, Menallen, New Oxford and Union Twp. and two constables are to be selected in McSherrystown.

Of the 15 justices of the peace to be selected one each will be named in York Springs, Union, Reading, New Oxford, Mt. Pleasant, McSherrystown, Liberty, Hamiltonban, Gettysburg, Freedom, Franklin, Fairfield, East Berlin, Butler, Berwick and Bendersville. Two justices are to be selected in each of the following: Conewago, Latimore, Littlestown, Menallen and Straban.

Of the 22,351 eligible voters — of which about 60 percent are expected to cast ballots, 11,504 are Republicans, 10,535 Democrats. The male voters total 11,830 and the women 10,521. There are 164 non-partisan men and 144 nonpartisan women; 5,695 Democratic men and 4,840 Democratic women; 5,967 Republican men and 5,537 Republican women.

Miss Connie McCleaf, president, presided over a business meeting at which reports from the secretary and treasurer of the organization were given. Plans were made for a bake sale to be held at King's grocery store on Saturday, November 14.

A social hour and refreshments followed the meeting.

Ephraim Duffy, Waynesboro, visited recently with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fiscoe, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hankey.

Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 57 visited the Cruze Nursing Home, Hanover St., during their meeting Friday afternoon. The 18 girls present met at the Christ Lutheran parish house, then went to the Cruze home where Senior Aid Delores Adams led group singing and Halloween favors were presented guests at the home. Mrs. L. D. Cruze served refreshments. Upon their return to the parish house the Girl Scouts were presented with 1960 Girl Scout calendars for sale. Leaders for the meeting were Mrs. William Big-ham and Mrs. Rex Maddox.

Orrtanna

ORRTANNA — The semimonthly meeting of the Orrtanna Methodist Youth Fellowship was held Wednesday evening in the church hall with nine members and the pastor, the Rev. Norman Marden, present.

The program was opened with group singing and a scripture reading and prayer by Miss Susan Martz, vice president.

ANOTHER YANK QUILTS COUNTRY

MOSCOW (AP) — A 20-year-old Texan strode into the American embassy today, slapped down his passport on the consul's desk and said "I have made up my mind. I'm through."

He was Lee Harvey Oswald, a former Marine of Fort Worth, who said he had applied for Soviet citizenship.

The embassy urged him not to sign papers renouncing his American citizenship until he was sure the Soviet Union would accept him.

Third To Quit U.S.

Oswald himself—who is living at the Metropole Hotel—was not immediately available for comment on his action.

He is the third American during the past three months to apply for Soviet citizenship while visiting Russia.

Nicholas Petrulli of Valley Stream, N.Y., changed his mind after filing the renunciation form and this was what the embassy had in mind today when urging Oswald not to take the final step.

Robert Webster of Cleveland, Ohio, completed the formalities 10 days ago and has disappeared into the anonymous mass of the Soviet population.

Claim Lawyer Hired Negroes To Throw Lye In Girl's Face

NEW YORK (AP)—A slender, 32-year-old attorney has been charged with hiring three Negroes to throw lye into his former girl friend's face.

Burton N. Pugach, who lives in suburban Scarsdale and has law offices in the Bronx, was arrested Friday. He denied the charge.

Linda Riss, 23, a secretary, has been sightless in one eye since last June 15. Miss Riss, who is white, opened the door of her Bronx apartment and found a Negro man there who told her he had a present to deliver. He opened a cardboard box, removed a glass jar, and hurled lye in her face.

Arrest Three Negroes

Besides Pugach, who also is white, three Negroes — Heard Harden, 34, named as the actual assailant; Al Smith Newkirk, 31; and Walter McMillan, 27, all of Manhattan—were arrested at their homes. Pugach, who wears a goatee and horn-rimmed glasses was picked up as he approached his office. All four were charged with maiming.

Bronx Dist. Atty. Daniel V. Sullivan said Pugach, rebuffed by Miss Riss after she discovered he was married, told her: "I'll do the same thing to you that was done to Victor Riesel." The lye attack came the day after she became engaged to another man.

Labor Writer Riesel was blinded by acid thrown in his face while leaving a Broadway restaurant. Racketeers were blamed.

Was Former Client

The district attorney said Pugach had got in touch with Newkirk, a former client in a criminal case, a week before the lye attack and said he wanted "someone killed." He agreed to pay $2,000 for the attack, and Newkirk brought in Harden and McMillan, Sullivan said. He added that Pugach had met the three in Central Park the night after the attack and handed over the money.

But the three called on Pugach several times since then demanding more money. Sullivan said. He said Pugach since has handed over an additional $1,000.

Miss Riss has filed a million-dollar negligence suit against the city, charging that she had asked for protection after the threat and before the lye attack. She said police denied the protection. Since the attack, she has been under constant police guard.

PIER ANGELI GETS 'UPSET' OVER RUMORS

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Police rushed to the Bel Air home of Pier Angeli Friday night after getting a call from her ex-husband's partner indicating the actress was extremely upset.

Police Sgt. W. H. Bertsch said the actress obviously had been crying. He said no suicide attempt had been made.

The excitement began when the actress phoned her ex-husband, singer Vic Damone, at his restaurant in Fresno, Calif.

"Another Woman"

Damone said she asked about press accounts linking him to another woman and then became upset. As he continued talking to his wife, he signaled his partner, Sol Branker, to call police in Los Angeles.

Damone continued talking to his wife until police arrived at her home.

Learning that his wife was all right, Damone said:

"Oh, gee, that's great. I was kind of worried about her because she got upset. In spite of everything that's happened I'm very happy everything's all right because she's a great gal and I think the world of her."

The couple was divorced last December. They reconciled briefly last summer but split again.

Archaeologists are using aerial photography to locate crypts in the Middle East and Mediterranean areas.

Friday as a wave of violent weather raked the West. Estimates of damage ran as high as five million dollars in Utah.

Two children drowned in central Arizona flash floods which were described as the worst in that section since 1951. A fast-moving storm dumped from 6 to 15½ inches of snow along the eastern slopes of the Rockies and in the western plains states.

Ten Are Injured

The tornadic winds in Utah howled off the Wasatch Mountain Range and caused widespread damage in a heavily populated region from Salt Lake City 75 miles north to Tremonton, on the Utah-Idaho border.

At least 10 people were hurt in Utah as winds of up to 92 miles per hour toppled houses, uprooted trees and smashed thousands of windows. A dozen truck and trailer rigs were flipped over. State police halted truck, bus and small car traffic for several hours on open highways.

Rain, Hail, Snow

Winds of hurricane force accompanied a freak weather pattern in southern California. Rain, hail, snow and lightning storms uprooted trees in Los Angeles County. Cotton crops in the lush Imperial Valley suffered damage estimated at a quarter of a million dollars.

High winds fanned a score of fires in northern California forests. An estimated 16,000 acres burned and threatened some highways, closing U.S. 50. One woman was killed when a tree fell onto a pickup truck in the High Sierra. Skies were clearing today in Colorado and Wyoming, but sub-freezing temperatures during the night left an icy coating of snow.

AILING JUROR DELAYS TRIAL

PHILADELPHIA (AP) —

Indisposition of a juror cut short Friday's session of the John Coyle murder trial. Judge David L. Ullman had intended to hold a night session if necessary to complete the testimony of witnesses brought from Massachusetts.

But when Thomas Fahringer, juror No. 11, complained of a stomach ache in mid-afternoon, the judge was obliged to adjourn until Monday.

The 24-year-old Coyle is being tried for the murder of a Philadelphia policeman, James Kane, last June 5.

The state is expected to wind up its case by the middle of next week with the reading of a second alleged confession by Coyle.

Much of Friday was taken up with cross-examination of Lt. Michael Cullinane, a detective of the Massachusetts State Police. Cullinane had been on the stand for three days, reading a 166-page unsigned statement of his eight-hour questioning of Coyle.

NOVEMBER TO BE COLDER

WASHINGTON (AP) —

November weather is going to be colder than usual for much of the nation. The Weather Bureau reported this Friday in its long-range forecast, saying:

"The 30-day outlook for November calls for temperatures to average below seasonal normals over most of the area lying between the Appalachians and the Rockies except for near normal along the Gulf Coast and Southwest. Greatest departures are indicated for the central Plains. Above normal temperature averages are predicted for California, near normal for the Pacific Northwest, and below normal for the southern Plateau region.

"Precipitation is expected to exceed normal over most of the nation except along central and northern portions of the West Coast where subnormal amounts are in prospect. Owing to the expected unseasonable coldness and snow storms are expected to be more frequent than normal over the northern half of the area lying between the Appalachians and the Continental Divide."

APPEAL CASE TO HIGH COURT

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Sentencing of a Philadelphia trucker on charges of transporting stolen aluminum has been delayed until the U. S. Supreme Court disposes of a similar case involving two Lebanon, Pa., men.

Jacob Kossman, lawyer for the Philadelphia trucker, Sol Friedman, and also for Max and Frank Schaeffer, of Lebanon, said the Supreme Court had agreed to hear his argument that the government has no legal right to combine money values of stolen goods so they'll total more than $5,000.

Kossman said the Schaeffers are accused of transporting stolen dresses in interstate commerce, but that the alleged thefts were committed over a considerable time. If the totals cannot be added up, Kossman said, the accused cannot be tried in a federal court, only in a state court.

Judge Thomas C. Egan agreed Friday to defer sentencing of Friedman, who is charged with two actions of transporting aluminum taken from the Vertol Aircraft plant in suburban Ardmore to New Hyde Park, N. Y.

CUMP HEADS PBCAGCA

HARRISBURG (AP) — Earl L. Cump, Chambersburg, is the new president of the Pennsylvania Builders Chapter of the Associated General Contractors of America.

He was elected Friday at the organization's annual convention to succeed Frank J. Pasquerilla, Johnstown.

Russia Backs Red China's Plans To Seize Formosa

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev said today that President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Macmillan agreed with him that there should be a summit conference "the sooner the better."

In a major foreign policy speech before the rubberstamp Soviet parliament, Khrushchev made no direct reference to French President De Gaulle's suggestion the conference be held off until spring.

But the Soviet leader predicted that his forthcoming visit to France would be useful for France, for the Soviet Union and for world peace.

"Wildly Cheered"

Wearing a gray suit with his usual medals, Khrushchev was wildly cheered in his 1 hour 41 minute speech covering the whole international range.

Among the major points he made were:

1. Disarmament is the most important problem of the present day and its settlement depends whether there will be war or peace. The Soviets want complete disarmament but are willing to consider other proposals.

2. The Soviet Union supports Red China's determination to take Formosa "until the question is solved."

"Regret Frontier Incidents"

3. "We regret the incidents on the Indian-Chinese frontier, especially where they involved casualties and we hope they will not be repeated. We hope the difficulties will be solved by negotiations."

4. His visit to the United States convinced him the majority of Americans do not want war and he feels they now understand better the Soviet desire for peace.

6. He called for withdrawal of foreign troops from South Korea to speed unification of the country.

7. He declared the Soviet Union desired that not even the "minutest hotbed of war" should remain in Laos and said foreign countries ought not to interfere because of possible "undesirable results."

Gallery Is Packed

Khrushchev's wife, Nina, sat in the great Kremlin Hall with his eldest daughter, Julia, to hear the premier speak. Both wore plain black dresses.

The diplomatic gallery was packed.

Western diplomats were impressed by the mild tone of the speech and pointed out to news men that there were no attacks on anybody, even West Germany, a favorite whipping boy for the Soviets.

Khrushchev, in his wide ranging speech, dwelt on the easing of tension which he attributed largely to countries of the Communist camp.

He said there are still tensions around the world—in the Middle East, Near East, Far East and Europe—but they were not as bad as they were.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times

TEN YEARS AGO
Eastern Star Observes Its 25th Birthday: The local chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star Tuesday night celebrated its 25th anniversary with a banquet at the Hotel Gettysburg. One hundred and fifty-three members and guests were present.

Mrs. W. Preston Hull, first worthy matron of the organization, introduced the 14 charter members present and named eight charter members who are still members of the local group but could not be present for the anniversary party. Mrs. Hull has not missed a meeting of the Eastern Star in 25 years.

The surviving charter members include Miriam T. Daley, Elizabeth Hennig, Carrie Hull, Jane Hutchison, Miriam B. Keefe, Maudie Klinefelter, Bertha Martz, Maude Myers, Theodora Oyler, Mary Reynolds, Thelma Bender, Zona Sheely, Anna Baschore, Carolyn Moser, Helen Naugle, Bettie Rosenstengel, Lillian Fiske, Mae Thomas, Sadie Wentz and Dr. Frank Kramer who has served as worthy patron for the local unit since its inception.

30 Touring And Travel Agents To Tour 'Field': Approximately 30 touring and travel counselors in the Washington, D.C.; Silver Spring, Md., and Alexandria, Va., offices of the American Automobile Association will visit Gettysburg Sunday on a training and inspection trip.

The party, headed by Walter Whiteley Hubbard, editor of the "American Motorist" monthly, and Warren H. Bonelli, manager of services for the District of Columbia division, AAA, will leave the nation's capital by bus Sunday and will pay a brief visit to Frederick enroute here.

Breaks Ground For New Building Here: Roy E. Goldsmith has broken ground for a new building to house his roofing and siding business on the corner of West High and West streets on a plot of ground he purchased some time ago.

The building, of concrete block and brick construction and one story high, will measure 50 feet by 150 feet and is expected to be completed by January 1. The Goldsmith business will then be moved from the present location at 44 Steinwehr avenue and will include a sheet metal and paint department.

First Frost Thursday: To Be Colder Tonight: It was cold enough here this morning to blanket most of Adams county under a heavy, white frost, the first of the season, but colder temperatures are forecast for tonight.

The advice from the Philadelphia weather bureau is: "Button up your overcoat and check the anti-freeze in your car." It's going to be cold tonight with a general frost predicted.

The forecast calls for below freezing temperatures across the state tonight with a low of about 36 degrees expected. Last night's low here was 33 degrees, the coldest so far this fall. In general, temperatures have been unseasonably warm.

Church Society Honors Memory Of Mrs. Margaret Himes Seebach With Memorial Edition Of Poems: "Here We Have Stars" is a 245 page cloth-bound book of the many poems written by the late Margaret R. (Himes) Seebach, sister of Miss Mary Himes, Carlisle street, and daughter of the late Professor and Mrs. John A. Himes, for many years prominent in the activities of Gettysburg and Gettysburg college.

The book was recently published as a memorial edition by the Women's Missionary Society of the United Lutheran church and dedicated "in living tribute" to Margaret R. Seebach who was editor of the Lutheran Woman's Work for twenty years.

A LIBRARY PASSES BY

Think of the world as a library. Every walking man and woman is a book. Each tree. Each dead and living thing. And every book is illustrated. And bound — "as to the manner born." And every book is individual, personal.

Wendell Phillips, the great U.S. orator and reformer, realized this when he said: "I learn something from everybody."

Expression is one of the greatest forces in human growth. That is why people are so interesting. That is why the books that line your library or lie upon your table mean so much to human life.

That's why all crowds compel — fascinate. Mere books are cold. Active, moving things and thinking people are so warm.

You, as you walk or sit or think, are greater than the greatest book that was ever bound. All the possibilities of the most marvelous book lie still and restricted in their grave of type, while YOU view a world that has gone and come again.

But you — who live, breathe, move and have your being among a thousand sources of knowledge, are you not what no bound book has ever been able to gather and present?

Look about you — everywhere. A world is changing every minute. So, learn.

Just Folks

HALLOWEEN
This is the night when goblins run, ghosts and witches have their fun; Spooks come slipping down the lanes;

Tick-tacks rigged on window panes, Eerie noises in and out

Prove that elves are roundabout; Doorbells ring and shutters bang; Gates on rusty hinges clang,

Bonfires lighting up the scene, This is the night of Halloween.

Then, at nine o'clock comes peace;

All these eerie noises cease; Bonfires flicker out and die, Black once more becomes the sky;

Doorbells strangely ring no more When there's no one at the door; Tick-tacks cease their tapping, and Calm pervades once more the land.

Then a boy, with ghost-like tread, Enters and goes up to bed.

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

B. F. M. MacPHERSON

Conflicting Testimony

It is rather unusual that in the case of the Commonwealth versus Henry Heist for the murder of Emanuel Monn there were no witnesses for the defense. The defendant's lawyers, George Benner and John Reed Scott, relied solely on the failure of the prosecution to "make a case." The evidence was entirely circumstantial. Heist was (or appeared to be) quite indifferent as the district attorney presented 57 witnesses who testified to the jealousy of the accused insofar as Susan McClellan was concerned, his repeated threats against young Monn, and his conflicting stories regarding the disappearance of the dead youth. All of this built up a strong case although no actual eye-witness to the crime itself could be found. The testimony, as given, is continued in this time.

16. Sixteenth witness — Clara Monn, "the twelve-year old sister of Emanuel Monn." — "Stated that she wished for poor Emanuel to come home and Heist said 'You think when one's gone a couple of weeks he is dead and buried.'"

Bruise On Chest

17. Seventeenth witness — Jacob and Ephraim Rock — "We helped to lay out the body of Emanuel Monn. There were no marks on his body except a bruise on the chest."

18. Eighteenth witness — Dr. William Holland — "I practice medicine at Fayetteville and vicinity. I saw Henry Heist, the defendant, professionally, the early part of February (1893) at the house of John Henry Barnes. He (Heist) was in bed with a high fever and a quick pulse. The patient said his pain was all in his head. I saw him three or four times after that and used opiates and counter irritation for the pain in his head. Saw him later in the month and found him suffering in the same way."

19. Nineteenth witness — Samuel Welsh — "I have known the defendant, Henry Heist, for nearly twenty years. I saw him (Heist) on March 12, 1893, at Jacob Monn's. I told Heist that I had heard a bad report about him. Went on to say that I had heard that he (Heist) and young Emanuel Monn were chopping wood and people blamed him for killing Emanuel and putting his body in a copper drift. Heist replied that Emanuel, before he left, sold his axe to James Daywalt for fifty cents. Said Jacob Monn, the father of Emanuel, knew where his son was working in the saw mill at Seven Stars."

Others Testify

20. The parade of witnesses went on and among those who testified were John E. Study, Henry Herring, Washington Marshall, Fannie Marshall, Jacob Monn (the father of the murdered Emanuel), Frank Alvis, Jacob Brumbaugh, Jacob Corwell, John H. Collmer and Edward Reese. All of these substantiated evidence already given and their stories, in the main, "hung together."

Henry Peters, the constable of Hamilton Township, testified as to his part in the affair, as follows: — "I organized the search for the body of Emanuel Monn and I was at the site when the body was found. On the eighth of March (1893) Solomon Monn, the brother of Emanuel Monn, came over and asked me to go and hunt for his brother who, he thought, had been killed. We went on a Sunday to hunt for Monn's body. Mr. Shockey first found a spot that looked like a grave covered with rails and stones. After some people had come, we uncovered the grave, and found the body. It was March the 12th, 1893. . . . I took the hat, comfort, and hatchet, found in the shanty, home with me and brought them here to court. . . ."

Detailed Testimony
Witness John Reese — "I was at the shanty the morning after the body of Emanuel Monn was found. I fitted the pole of the hatchet I found there (in the shanty) in the wound on the forehead of Emanuel Monn and the one (wound) behind the left ear. The hatchet pole fit perfectly in to both of them."

After John Reese (the father of George Reese) had testified, Katie Seifert and James McClellan were called to the stand. Both gave rather detailed testimony regarding the possessions of Emanuel Monn and identified the same. James Daywalt was the next witness and since he was the last person (except the murderer) to see the victim alive, his account was recorded in detail.

"I (James Daywalt) was at George Reese's on the first of February (1893). Emanuel Monn and some other people were there. Heist was the first to leave the house. Shortly after his departure I left to go to the shanty for the gun (this gun was the property of James McClellan, who had loaned it first to Henry Heist and later to James Daywalt). Heist was at the shanty alone when I got there. He handed me the gun and told me that it was loaded. On the way back to the Reese house I met Emanuel Monn going up to the shanty blowing a mouth organ. I met him twelve or fourteen yards from the Reese house. I never again saw Emanuel alive. The next day I went back to the shanty at daybreak to get some cider. There was no one there. I afterwards saw Heist at the George Reese house and he told me Monn was out racking wood. That was between nine and ten o'clock in the morning."

Axe Is Purchased

"A little later Heist told me that Emanuel went home and said if I would give him fifty cents he would sell me the axe and I bought it at that price. He also offered to sell me the shanty, blankets, and everything in the shanty. He told me what he had and I bought everything for a dollar. After this I told Heist that if Monn came back I wouldn't give back what I had bought. Heist told me that I needn't be afraid, that Monn would not be back."

"On February 2nd when I went to the shanty I reached down to pick up the hatchet and burned my fingers on it. I asked Heist why he had put the hatchet in the fire and he told me that he had broken the handle in it and had to burn it out. He gave me the hatchet and I put a new handle in it. . . . I lived in the shanty until Monn's body was found."

The parade of witnesses went on and on. Among the last to testify were Hugh Nary, John A. Peters, and Dr. Joseph Leidy, of Philadelphia. The latter had been sent some of the bloody shavings found just outside the shanty, in order that he might make an analysis of the blood found thereon. He testified that the blood was that of an "animal or man, that brought forth its young alive."

Pleads For Heist

The defendant, Henry Heist, did not take the stand in his own defense and offered no evidence of any sort. He relied solely on the failure of the Commonwealth to make a case.

Mr. Bennett, one of the counsel for the defense, made an able plea for Heist. District Attorney Duncan then made his address. After being out only twenty minutes the jury reached a verdict. They found Heist guilty of murder in the first degree — with no recommendation for mercy.

According to an eye witness — "Heist had manifested but little concern, all through the trial, in the seriousness of the charge against him. Now at the supreme moment his callousness and nerve did not forsake him. Beyond a little twitching of the muscles of his face, he was as calm and collected as ever."

On September 26, 1893, Heist's attorneys appeared before Judge McClellan, who heard their argument for a new trial. The facts were all reviewed and the motion was denied. When Heist stood up to be sentenced he was asked why "sentence of death should not be pronounced upon him" and he replied — "I am an innocent man. I didn't harm the boy. We never had any words."

Gets Death Sentence

The sentence of death was then pronounced by Judge McClellan. On December 5, 1893, Henry Heist made the following statement: — On the morning the boy (Emanuel Monn) left me, Thursday, he said he was going to Gettysburg to get a coat and vest. I told him as it was raining I would go and rack wood, it might make ice on it. I racked a cord of wood and in about an hour went down to George Reese's house. I asked Mrs. Reese if Emanuel had went already. She said he didn't come past. I said, 'Then he must have went home, or he followed Jim McClellan to the sale.' When the boy left in the morning he said if Daywalt left the half dollar with me, I should let him have the axe. Then Daywalt and Nary's boy came up to the shanty with me. Daywalt picked up the axe and said, 'Is this the axe?' I said it was, and he left the half dollar, and him and Nary's boy went with me up above the shanty and helped me to rack some wood. Then they came down and stayed in my company nearly the whole day at the shanty."

Let's Look At The Record

INTERVENTIONS
Cuban Chao Could Be Turn Of Long Tide
Costa Rican Liberal Endorses Interventions

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.

President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

INTERVENTION is a dirty word in Cuba. Fidel Castro goes into a frenzy at its mention. To make sure it is mentioned when he needs a frenzy, he shouts the word himself as a starter's gun for each new oratorical marathon in denunciation of America.

But in the same week that Castro most recently rabble-raised a new host of machete-toting, spellbound followers, ex-President Jose Figueres Ferrer, of Costa Rica (1953-58), was urging intervention in Latin-American trouble spots as a U.S. duty.

THIS PARADOX suggests a look at the intervention record. Definition: Intervention is the armed interference with the affairs of another nation, with or without its consent.

At the local, street corner level, it is the cop who interferes, complete with night stick and handcuffs, to break up a barrel-chested, barroom brawl. He is seldom popular.

And that has been the history of international intervention. Even so, Dr. Percy H. Winfield writes: "Intervention has been and probably still is inevitable as one means of standardizing the civilization upon which international law is based." Many have said as much of the cop on the beat with reference to local laws.

THE HOLY ALLIANCE, following the Napoleonic wars, was to the era 1815-32 what the League of Nations and the U.N. have been to our post-war era.

Their interventions for peace that freed Greece and Belgium have been praised. Similar interference in Italy and Spain are damned by the same historians who praise the former.

It was the Spanish intervention and possible future of former Spanish colonies that excited America and shaped our foreign policy until 1933. But the resulting Monroe Doctrine did not repudiate interventions. Indeed, armed interference in the affairs of other nations was the recognized means of the Doctrine's enforcement.

Hence, intervention is as American as blueberry pie.

TO MAKE THE JOB easier, American diplomats immediately began getting intervention rights into Latin American treaties. The clause was used not only to give force to the Monroe Doctrine (used most particularly against England, Spain and France, 1862-70) but also to protect American lives and to initiate law and order in the bloody areas resulting from revolts against Spain and against the local home-grown despots who took over.

Came 1900 and Cuban independence. A principle of the protectorate established over Cuba included the right of intervention. This was also the end of a once great empire — Spain's.

Ever willing to test America's firmness on the Monroe Doctrine and eager to pick up loose bits from Spain's old empire, European powers began pushing out colonial boundaries and using defaulted debts as excuses for Caribbean interventions.

America, invoking the Monroe Doctrine, lowered the boom on them with a ban on new boundaries; and, if warships were necessary for police interventions, they would be American warships and marines.

Bolts Smother Carlisle With Amazing Ease 32-6 Before Overflow Crowd

Littlestown High School left no doubt as to its power Friday evening with an awesome display as it pulled an amazing upset by crushing Carlisle, of the South Penn Conference, 32-6, before an overflow crowd of 2,500 fans on the Thunderbolts' field.

Despite their Laurel Conference title, many fans felt the Bolts were stepping a little too high in taking on Carlisle but Littlestown's exhibition proved the lower counties have an outfit capable of competing with the best.

Only three times during the entire game was Littlestown stopped from picking up more than one first down on a series of plays. The home team was forced to punt the ball only twice. The Bolts tore up and down the field through the Carlisle line as though it was paper for a net gain of 323 yards. The victor's defense was at its best as they held the Herd to 98 yards on the ground and only 22 in the air.

Spark Winners
Coach Wib Gobrecht's champions were sparked on their offensive drives by Darryl Bollinger, 6-1, 195 pounds, who carried the ball 19 times for a net 137 yards and little Wayne Garrett, 5-9, 165 pounds, who toted the ball 28 times for 168 yards. The Bolts kept pounding away at the defensive line from the powerful single wing formation tossing only one pass good for 27 yards.

Littlestown tallied its first score in the first few minutes of the game. Carlisle was forced to punt after gaining eight yards on three carries. The Bolts took over on their own 47. Garrett and Bollinger used five plays to move the ball to the opponent's four. The highlight of the drive was Garrett's 19-yard dash through the center of line behind excellent blocking by the forward wall. Bollinger was thrown for a four-yard loss but Garrett came right back to place the pignis on the four. Two plays later Garrett plunged into the end zone from the one yard line for his first of four touchdowns. Dave Crouse's attempt for the extra point was wide.

With only two minutes gone by on the scoreboard clock, the Bolts had jumped to a 13-0 lead. Following another Herd punt the Bolts had the ball on their own 45. Garrett went off right guard for 14 yards, and Bill Bowers added seven more. Two plays later Bowers tossed the only Bolts aerial to end Ed Knipple for 27 yards and placed the ball on the Carlisle 11. Bollinger and Garrett each got five more yards to the one from where Garrett bolted off guard for the placement.

Long Kickoff Return
Forty seconds later Carlisle tied its lone six-pointer. Crouse kicked off, right halfback Sam Paden took the ball in on the 10 yard line and ran the sidelines to give the opponents a first down on the Littlestown four. Jack Brogher went off right tackle for two followed by Paden's two-yard crash through the center for the score. Steve Boyer's attempt for the placement was wide.

At the end of the first half Littlestown, already with a strong hope of victory, led 13-6.

Bower took the second half kickoff, went up the center for five yards, handed off to Ed Knipple, who streaked 44 yards to the Carlisle 41. After three unsuccessful plays, Harry Cook punted and the visitors took over on their own 12. John Darhower was thrown for a two-yard loss and Paden was stopped at the line of scrimmage when he fumbled and Bob Little recovered for Littlestown. Garrett carried on three straight plays and scored on the third from the one-yard line. Crouse placement was blocked by end Bob Panke.

Now leading 19-6 the Bolts went on to sew up the game with two more scores in the final frame and were about to score their third when the gun sounded ending the contest.

Two minutes after the opening of the fourth period, Darryl Bollinger capped a 62-yard drive following a Carlisle fumble, by skirting right end for three yards and a TD. Crouse's kick was wide. Garrett and Bollinger set up the score with runs of 25 and 28 yards, respectively, on the drive.

Garrett Gets Fourth
The final six-pointer came with 4:05 minutes remaining in the game. Garrett climaxed a 55-yard drive with a two-yard plunge off right guard. This time Larry Snyder split the uprights for the extra point. During the fast moving drive Bowers clipped off 20 yards off left tackle while Garrett skirted right end for 32 yards.

At this stage of the ball game Coach Gobrecht sent in his third and fourth units, who began moving the ball and when the game ended the Bolts had advanced the ball to the Carlisle seven.

FORMER COP MAY PROMOTE TITLE SCRAP

STOCKHOLM (AP)—A former policeman may wind up with promotion rights to the Ingemar Johansson-Floyd Patterson heavyweight title rematch.

Joe Tepper, one-time policeman who served the New York State Athletic Commission as a deputy commissioner, chief deputy and executive secretary over a five-year period ending this summer, has received preliminary approval from Johansson's adviser, Edwin Ahlquist, to buy the promotion rights.

Bout In New York
Ahlquist said today Tepper would hold the rematch in New York if he can buy the rights from Vincent J. Velella, head of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc., which promoted the first fight last June.

"Tepper has been negotiating for quite some time to buy the promotion rights from Velella and I understand negotiations now are near their end," Ahlquist said.

New York Dist. Atty. Frak Hogan, along with the New York commission, investigated the promotion activities of the first fight with the result that the licenses of promoter Bill Rosensohn, Rosensohn Enterprises, and Cus d'Amato, manager of Patterson, were suspended and may be revoked.

WAR ADMIRAL PASSES AWAY

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—War Admiral, the great thoroughbred who met his match in a two-horse race against Seabiscuit 21 years ago Sunday, is dead.

The 25-year-old son of Man O' War died Friday at Hamburg Place here after a two-day illness. No cause of death was announced. It was Nov. 1, 1938, when War Admiral, voted the previous season's "horse of the year," took on Seabiscuit in the $15,000 Pimlico Special.

Seabiscuit, bought only three years earlier by Charles S. Howard for $7,500, paid $6.40 in winning the mile and three-sixteenths race. His time was 1:56 3-5.

Pittsburgh Signs Murtaugh For Year

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Danny Murtaugh has his old job as manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates for another season and assurance from Club President John W. Galbreath that the Pirates will remain in Pittsburgh.

Murtaugh, whose club finished fourth last season, signed a new contract Friday for a reported $30,000.

"What we need," Murtaugh said, "is another long-ball hitter to go with Dick Stuart and possibly another left-handed pitcher and we'll give 'em hell."

"But even if we don't come up with a trade for a long-ball hitter we can win the pennant providing Bob Skinner, Billy Mazarowski and Bill Virdo play up to their potential."

DELONE SCRUBS TOP CADETS IN FINAL CONTEST

Delone's junior varsity football team concluded its season with a 3-2 record by edging Scotland 18-14 on the latter's field Friday afternoon.

A 15-yard run by Paul Sponteller in the first period accounted for Delone's score. Scotland held a 14-6 lead at half time due to scores in each of the first two frames. The first quarter score came when Hulker recovered a Delone fumble in the end zone and the second stanza tally was on a four-yard run by DuBose. Metzger added two points on placement kicks.

Dick Rosensteel fired a six-yard pass to Bill Timmins for a Delone touchdown in the third period. The winning score in the final round came on a 40-yard end run by Eddie Lough.

But he said it's too early to decide. The baseball star said Friday that salary was not an issue. His immediate plans are to continue as a home building contractor at this California-Nevada resort center and operate his restaurant in Oakland, Calif.

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Once again Oklahoma football coach Bud Wilkinson has denied speculation that he signed to coach in the proposed American Football League.

The latest rumor that he has signed to coach the Dallas entry in the professional league came Thursday. He denied a similar report this month at Dallas when the Sooners played Texas.

"It's completely untrue," he said.

College Grid Leaders Eye LSU-Mississippi Battle

By WHITNEY MARTIN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The top 10 teams could undergo a major shuffling today as the nation's college football teams go into action on a major scale, and the No. 1 spot could be up for grabs.

Louisiana State, defending national champion and the No. 1 eleven since the start of the current season, meets probably its toughest rival in Mississippi.

Ole Miss and LSU each has won six games without a defeat, and between them have allowed only one touchdown. Tulane crossed the Mississippi goal and two field goals have been scored against the Tigers of LSU. Ole Miss is ranked No. 3.

Wildcats Eye Results
These two titans meet at night, and awaiting the result with more than ordinary interest will be the Wildcats of Northwestern, with their own business of the day—against Indiana—completed. Northwestern is rated No. 2 nationally, and is eyeing that top spot avidly.

The big college weekend opened Friday night with Kentucky upsetting Miami (Fla.) 22-3 in the Orange Bowl. In other major games Friday Tulane beat Texas Tech 17-7, Boston College downed Detroit 21-9 and Virginia Military defeated George Washington 28-6.

Much Hinges On Result
The LSU-Mississippi game at Baton Rouge, La., possibly will determine the national title, the SEC championship, and undoubtedly will bring a Sugar Bowl bid to the winner.

Other teams in the top 10 place unblemished records on the line. Fourth-ranked Texas takes on Methodist, in one of those South-west Conference games in which anything can happen. SMU has a 3-1 record.

Syracuse, No. 5 and the pride of the East, tangles with Pittsburgh, with the Big Orange a strong favorite to take their sixth straight victory. Southern California, ranked No. 6 and also unbeaten in five starts, takes on California, winner only once in six.

CUBAN OX TO FIGHT CHAMP JANUARY 22

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Florentino Fernandez, the Cuban Ox, wants to fight welterweight champion Don Jordan and ex-champ Carmen Basilio.

Teddy Brenner, Madison Square Garden matchmaker already has arranged a Jan. 22 non-title match between Jordan and the latest Cuban whiz. He is working on a Basilio match at 150 pounds.

"We like it," said Fernandez and his manager, Higinio Ruiz, Friday night after a split decision victory over Mexico's Gaspar Ortega. They were referring to the two proposed matches.

"I think Jordan would be easier than Ortega," said Fernandez. "Ortega moves more and I don't think Jordan can take a punch as good as he can."

Mexican In Tears
The unhappy Mexican was in tears after dropping another split decision. The welter (Ortega weighed 147 for Fernandez) 146) thought he won. So did his managers, Jimmy Stinson and Nick Corby and his trainer, Freddy Brown. But only one official agreed. Referee Al Berl called it a draw for the Cuban 5-4-1. Judge Frank Forbes (6-2-2) and Judge Jack Gordon (5-4-1) voted for Fernandez. The AP card was 6-3-1 for Fernandez. Of 14 ringside writers 12 thought the Cuban won, one called it a draw and one favored Ortega.

For the first time in 22 winning fights, Fernandez failed to drop his opponent at least once. He had Ortega on the deck twice Sept. 11 when he won a unanimous decision at Miami Beach. The Cuban has scored 18 knockouts.

RYDER CUPPERS TEE OFF TODAY

PALM DESERT, Calif. (AP)—Rival Ryder Cup teams of Great Britain and the United States tune up for their international matches next week when they tee off today in a $7,500 pro-member tournament.

The 10-members of each team, plus 13 other professionals invited for the 36-hole event, pair off with 99 members of the club for the two days of play at the El Dorado Country Club.

Capt. Dai Rees again leads the Britishers, who upset the Yanks in the biennial Ryder Cup play at Lindrick, England, in 1957. It was their first victory in 24 years.

Others on the British team are Peter Allis, Ken Bousfield, Eric Brown, Norman Drew, Bernard Hunt, John Pantom, Christy O'Connor, Dave Thomas and Harry Weetman.

WEST CHESTER EASILY WHIPS MILLERSVILLE

WEST CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—The shine on West Chester's football record certainly wasn't rubbed off by Millersville Friday night, but the Rams did have something to moan about.

They are no longer unscored upon in the Pennsylvania Teachers College Conference.

What's more, Millersville even managed to tie West Chester, 7-7, in the second period. That must have gotten the Rams to ramming, for the half ended with the score 28-7, and the game ended with the score 41-7.

Game Rated Tossup
It is New York's biggest college game in 10 years and is rated a tossup.

Another intersectional clash finds unbeaten Clemson, the ACC leader, playing Rice at Houston. Wyoming, undefeated leader of the Skyline Conference, journeys East to play at North Carolina State.

Oklahoma, perennial champions of the Big Eight, is expected to take a step nearer the 1959 crown when it meets Nebraska. Yale, the only unscored on team in the country, risks that record when it meets Dartmouth in an Ivy League affair. North Texas State, another unbeaten team, plays Wichita in a Missouri Valley Conference contest.

Arkansas and Texas A&M battle it out in a southwest Conference game.

FAVOR 49ERS TO BEAT LIONS

By JIM KENSIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pre-season rap on the San Francisco 49ers was age. Age meant Y. A. Tittle, Billy Wilson and Joe Perry, all tested veterans but all 32 years old. Then along came J. D. Smith (26), Tommy Davis (24) and Lenny Lyons (23) to add youth to the offense.

Also rookies Dave Baker and Eddie Dove, both 22, along with Abe Woodson, a 24-year-old sophomore.

So suddenly the '49ers have become the '59ers as they carry a 4-1 record and a share of the Western Conference lead into Sunday's game against the visiting Detroit Lions. San Francisco is a 7-point favorite.

Colts Over Browns
Defending NFL champion Baltimore, also 4-1 in the West, rates 7½ points better than the Cleveland Browns of the Eastern Conference at Baltimore. The Green Bay Packers invade New York, where the Giants (4-1) are favored by 7.

The Chicago Bears play at Los Angeles to complete the Western schedule, with the Rams favored by 6½. The Rams (2-3) are in fourth place a game behind Green Bay (3-2) and a game ahead of the Bears and Lions (both 1-4). The Philadelphia Eagles, tied for second in the East with Cleveland at 3-2, are favored by 7 over Washington, and the Pittsburgh Steelers, the only road favorite of the day, get the nod by 3½ over the Chicago Cards. The Steelers and Redskins are tied for fourth with 3-2 marks, while the Cards are 1-4.

TWYMAN SCORES 47 POINTS IN A LOSING CAUSE

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Jack Twyman scored 47 points for the Cincinnati Royals in their game with the Syracuse Nationals Friday night, but it was in a lost cause.

The Nats, taking an early lead, defeated the Royals in their National Basketball Assn. game at Cincinnati 136-127 to grab third place in the Eastern Division.

Twyman was a one-man show, and in the first three periods he scored 41 points.

The winning Nationals divided their scoring well. Larry Costello was high for the team with 29 points, but Johnny Kerr got 22, Dolph Schayes 21 and Bob Hopkins 20.

Costello led the Nationals to a 73-64 half-time lead, and although Cincinnati narrowed the gap to five points in the third period it never could get closer.

Widow Given Bulk Of Bell Estate
NORRISTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Bert Bell, national football league commissioner who died Oct. 11, left most of his estate to his widow.

The estate was estimated at $95,000 for probate purposes.

After a $5,000 bequest to his brother, Justice John C. Bell Jr., of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court, about half the estate will go to Bell's three children.

The 64-year-old Bell collapsed at a Philadelphia-Pittsburgh NFL game at Franklin Field here, and died several minutes later.

His will was filed in Orphans Court here.

WEST CHESTER EASILY WHIPS MILLERSVILLE

WEST CHESTER, Pa. (AP)—The shine on West Chester's football record certainly wasn't rubbed off by Millersville Friday night, but the Rams did have something to moan about.

They are no longer unscored upon in the Pennsylvania Teachers College Conference.

What's more, Millersville even managed to tie West Chester, 7-7, in the second period. That must have gotten the Rams to ramming, for the half ended with the score 28-7, and the game ended with the score 41-7.

Pile Up 188 Points
The Rams have piled up 188 points against 15 for their opponents this year. Villanova managed 7 and Northwestern College 8.

Halfback Bill Shockley, right end Ken Campbell, and quarterback Ted Kowal led the way against Millersville, which is now 4-3 for the season and 3-2 in the conference.

Kowal threw three touchdown passes, two to Campbell and one to Bill Gray. The second one to Campbell launched a 65-yard scoring play. Campbell caught the ball on the Millersville 40. At the 31 he was hit and fumbled the ball, but running at headlong speed, he recovered and drove the rest of the way.

Shockley, the state's leading scorer last year, scored twice, both times on one-yard plunges. Millersville got its only tie early in the second period. The old Statue of Liberty play was used. Jim Creighton took the ball from quarterback Drew Darrah, whose arm was cocked to pass, and ran 28 yards down the sideline for the score.

This was the only Friday night game involving Pennsylvania college teams.

BLAME DEMS FOR HIGH TAX

WILLIAMSPORT (AP)—State Sen. Douglas H. Elliott, Republican from Franklin County, has labeled the Democratic administration one committed to high spending and high taxes.

At a GOP rally Friday night, Elliott said the state's taxpayers were saved at least 100 million dollars by Republican resistance to the administration's tax and budget measures.

"Gov. Lawrence was elected last November only by a narrow majority—and that majority he owes to the big city bosses who have never let him forget it," Elliott declared.

"But these men know as well as we do that had only a fraction of the million and a quarter people who stayed away from the polls last November cast their votes in that election, Republican would by this time have been well under way on the task of putting Pennsylvania back on a sound fiscal basis."

Bermudian Springs, after battling Spring Grove to a 13-13 tie at half time, wilted in the last half to drop a 32-20 decision on the Rockets' field Friday afternoon.

Both teams closed their seasons with the game. Bermudian, playing its first year of varsity ball, logged a 1-5 mark while Spring Grove wound up with six wins against one loss.

SETS RECORD IN DISTRICT 3 X-COUNTRY

Lancaster's Henry Horn smashed the District 3 cross country record by 35.6 seconds as he romped home 75 yards ahead of York ace Dough Reachard in the championship run at Venke Golf Range, Reading, Friday.

The spindly, bespectacled Red Tornado harrier covered the 2½-mile course in a blazing 10:15.5 for his new mark as he surprised the entire field.

The record broken was set last year by York's Ralph Houdesell. His time was 10:51.1.

York repeated as team champion with 30 points while Francis Korkuch's surprising John Harris Pioneers took the runnerup spot by placing five boys in the top 13. They accumulated 47 points.

York and John Harris now are eligible to send seven of their top runners to the PIAA state championships at University Park next Saturday.

The first 13 finishers also are eligible for the state run since there was a record entry of 13 full teams in the district meet. A total of 16 schools were represented.

Two Biglerville High runners were among the 123 youths taking part. Arthur Miller finished 30th, being clocked in 11:46, and Pete Byerly was 61st, finishing the course in 12:30.

County Agent Advises On Productivity Of Pullets, Seed Quota, Cow Feeding

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

Body weight, feed consumption and housing comfort are the keys to a profitable egg flow in the fall months of highest prices for large eggs.

These factors apply particularly to the "money crop" or early-hatched pullets, new pullets reaching peak production and hens which have laid for a year or more.

The fall pullet molt generally results from a loss of body weight. Inadequate feed consumption during a period of very high egg production will cause molting. A sudden spell of cold, wet weather will require more feed energy to keep layers comfortable, especially in poorly insulated buildings. Then, too, with natural daylight falling below 12 hours in length after September 15, the stimulating effect of light is reduced.

FRANK S. ZETTLE

Keep pullets laying by catering to their needs. They will indicate their condition, if you watch the feeders and their appetites. By keeping up their body weight and food consumption, you'll not have to worry about molting, even if the pullets were early hatched.

"Hard" Seeds In Legumes
Farmers who purchase alfalfa, clover and birdsfoot trefoil seed frequently ask about the percentage of hard seeds found in these legumes. It is not unusual for birdsfoot trefoil to contain in 20 to 25 per cent hard seeds. In a survey made last year Pennsylvania grown clover seed averaged approximately 15 per cent hard seeds.

"Hard" seeds do not absorb water when placed in wet or moist surroundings because of an impermeable seed coat. These hard seeds remain plump but will not germinate when first placed in conditions considered best for their growth. Experiments have shown that these hard seeds are viable and will germinate if the seed coat is broken by abrasion or freezing and thawing action.

A hard-seed content of up to 15 to 20 per cent in birdsfoot trefoil, to 15 per cent in clover, and 5 to 10 per cent in alfalfa does not lower the value of a particular seed lot if the total germination is 90 per cent or better.

Insure Germination
Hard seeds are a form of insurance in that these seeds will germinate later and aid in establishing a stand.

A number of years ago it was common to scratch or chip by some mechanical means the seed of legumes which contained relatively large quantities — 15 to 30 per cent — of hard seeds. This process is known as scarification.

Scarification of seed is not generally recommended because it was found that the non-hard seeds were injured. In many cases the total germination of the scarified seed was less than unscarified seed from the same lot.

The practice of including ground hay in the grain mixture generally should be discouraged.

Hay varies tremendously in protein and total digestible nutrient (TDN) content. Thus, it is difficult to balance a grain mix containing hay without the benefit of forage analysis.

Sometimes, dairymen are advised wrongly to use some legume hay in their grain mix to reduce the amount of protein supplement needed. This practice is not recommended because of the variation in protein content of hays and the lower digestibility of the protein in forages as compared to concentrates. The protein in forage generally is 68 to 70 per cent digestible as compared to 78 to 92 per cent digestibility for protein contained in grains and protein supplements. Remember, it is the digestible protein that counts.

Necessary Bulk Provided
In some areas dairy farmers are encouraged to provide extra bulk by including ground hay in the grain mix. However, most grain mixtures containing ground ear corn or oats have adequate bulk to keep cows in a slightly laxative condition. Hay and silage fed to dairy cattle provide sufficient bulk in most cases to make bulk in the grain mix relatively unimportant. Grinding often reduces the palatability of hay, unless lots of molasses is added or the feed pelleted.

Even the better hays are lower in TDN than most grains or concentrates. Using ground hay in the grain mix lowers the TDN content or overall feeding value of the mixture. This means that a

ALBANY, N. Y. (AP)—Dr. Paul Formel, Albany Medical College professor, had this advice for fathers in a talk here: Don't play football with sonny just to be a good dad. Violent exercise, he said, is for adolescents.

NEW YORK (AP)—A husky 14-year-old schoolboy battered a woman teacher to the floor with his fists Thursday after she slapped his face for calling her an obscene name.

The teacher, Carmenita Gillespie, 39, was treated at a hospital for a brain concussion, blackened eye, and facial cuts and bruises.

Her assailant, Julio Martinez, was held in $1,000 bail pending hearing on a charge of juvenile delinquency.

BONN, Germany (AP)—The Western Allies were reported agreed today that troops should be used if necessary to prevent display of the new Communist East German flag in West Berlin next week.

Allied officials said no special alert has been ordered for their Berlin garrisons yet. But they indicated such an order was quite probable when East Germany celebrates the 42nd anniversary of the Soviet Revolution Nov. 7.

MOSCOW (AP)—It may be because the moon-voyage accomplishments of Lunik III and Soviet parliament activities take up most of the space, but Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro's latest attacks against the United States aren't getting any play in the Soviet press.

Another possible explanation is the continued existence of surface warmth toward America as a result of Premier Nikita Khrushchev's recent U.S. trip.

Mixture with ground hay often must be fed in larger than usual amounts to maintain production levels.

It is cheaper also to let cattle do their own grinding. Only when high-moisture grains are being used can ground hay per ton improve the keeping quality of a mix containing largely high-moisture corn. An extra one-half pound of grain then should be fed daily.

TAX ON FARMS AT NEW PEAK IN THIS STATE

Farm real estate taxes in Pennsylvania reached a record high in 1958—an average of $2.01 an acre, according to a recent report received by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture.

The report, compiled by the United States Department of Agriculture, shows that the Pennsylvania farm real estate tax per acre is almost double the national average of $1.03 an acre.

Farmers in 10 other states pay higher real estate taxes than do farmers in the Keystone state. Highest rate is in New Jersey with an average of $8.31 an acre. Connecticut is second with $5.87. The lower average rate, 10 cents an acre, was found in New Mexico.

Pennsylvania farm real estate taxes have risen steadily in recent years. In 1950, the average was $1.38 an acre; in 1956, $1.76, and in 1957, $1.87.

Last year Pennsylvania farmers paid a total of $26,300,000 in real estate taxes, compared with $24,400,000 in 1957 and $19,300,000 in 1950.

The state Department of Agriculture attribute the continuing increases in farm tax rates in Pennsylvania to the pressure of urban and suburban expansion, which increases land values and results in demands for more local governmental services which push tax rates up. The high Pennsylvania tax rates also reflects the predominance of relatively small intensively operated farms having a high per acre value.

Red Leaders In America Refuse To Answer Probe Questions; Quiz Potash

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Angry shouts and repeated use of the fifth Amendments marked the opening day of a Senate subcommittee hearing on communism.

Eugene Dennis, national secretary of the America Communist Party, and Sen. Roman Hruska (R-Neb) exchanged the shouts on Thursday when Dennis attempted to read a two-page statement into the record.

Using Premier Nikita Khrushchev's line, Dennis shouted that communism was a "high social order and will replace capitalism." Then Hruska, the committee's chairman, broke in shouting "Stop stop stop" while pounding on the table.

Shuns Fifty Questions

Dennis took the fifth amendment against self-incrimination when asked approximately 50 questions.

Irving Potash, a former vice president of the International Fur and Leather Workers Union, was heard after Dennis.

Potash was deported to Poland in 1955 after serving three years and five months in prison for conspiring to overthrow the government by force and violence. He was arrested by federal agents in 1957 after illegally re-entering the country.

Other Witnesses

He used the fifth Amendment

when asked if Russia and several of its satellite countries had refused to accept him as a deportee because they didn't want him and he "was more valuable here."

Other witnesses were Thomas, Nabried, of Philadelphia; Matthew Snyder, Norwood, Pa., and Daniel Rubin Philadelphia.

Nabried told reporters after the hearing that he was "a full time worker for the Communist party."

Nabried was convicted in 1955 on charges of conspiring to overthrow the government. During an appeal in 1958, the Justice Department dropped the charges.

Snyder, a milling machine operator, was a member of the United Electrical Workers Independent, according to his attorney. The CIO expelled the union in 1949 as allegedly Communist dominated.

ENOUGH VACCINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's supply of polio vaccine is now believed to be adequate.

The Public Health Service, in reporting this today, said the number of paralytic polio cases last week continued the downward trend from the peak period.

Dr. Leroy E. Burney, surgeon general, said 193 cases were reported for the week ended Oct. 24 as compared with 225 paralytic cases the previous week and 332 at the peak Sept. 19.

WILL KEEP TAB OF ACTIVITIES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Communist Party is trying to revitalize itself in the United States and a Senate subcommittee says it means to keep close watch on the effort.

Sen. Roman Hruska (R-Neb.), chairman of the group, ended two days of public and executive hearings Friday. He was the only member of the subcommittee on hand.

Hruska said that when the Communist party holds its 17th convention soon, the subcommittee will be keeping tab on it. He did not say where or when the convention will be held. On Thursday, however, a line of questioning indicated it is planned for Philadelphia in December.

Report Activities
It was through questioning by Julien Sourwine, committee counsel, that the subcommittee attempted to show what it has learned about Communist activity in the Philadelphia region. None of the witnesses confirmed the information.

Sourwine tried to show that Communist district leaders met recently in the suburban Norwood home of Matthew Snyder, and in a building housing a Chinese restaurant; that the Reds have been conducting drives for money; that perhaps 15 to 20 district leaders have been in touch with another frequently; and that the party is trying to recruit members from young people of the area.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Harlan Hill, one of the most skillful pass receivers in football, is listed as a doubtful participant in Sunday's game between the Chicago Bears and Los Angeles Rams.

Chicago Coach George Halas said Thursday at the Bears' northern California training camp that Hill is still bothered by a leg injury suffered last Sunday at San Francisco.

Iceland's Althing, the oldest parliamentary assembly in the world, will be 1,030 years old in 1960.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cullison and daughter, Nancy, and son, Ricky, were recent visitors in Hanover.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Martin attended the funeral of Mr. Martin's uncle, the late Lewis Weber, near Cearfoss, Md., Tuesday.

Those who attended the youth conference at the Church of the Brethren, Three Springs, near Blain, on Sunday were: Joan Hartman, Harriet Boyer, Rita Simpson, Elaine Yohe, Ronald Harmon, Larry Boyer and Warren Ashbaugh.

Miss Alma Fritz and Mrs. Anna Starry visited recently with Mrs. Beulah Collins, Littlestown.

Hunter Drowns Retrieving Goose

MONTROSE, Pa. (AP) — Richard Fernandez, 63, of Larksville, was anxious to recover a goose he had shot.

He plunged into the chilly water of nearby Lake Arrowhead Thursday and swam 90 feet to the goose. He suddenly sank.

John Baloh, a hunting companion also of Larksville, watched helplessly. Baloh cannot swim.

Fernandez' body was recovered about 15 minutes later by Charles Kazokas, 46, of Luzerne, who was fishing nearby.

Stuart Holmes, Susquehanna County Coroner, ruled the death an accidental drowning.

Railroads To Ask Rules To End "Featherbedding"

By ROBERT GOLDENSTEIN
CHICAGO (AP)—The most explosive issue between the nation's railroads and railroad unions—a controversy that has brought threats of a possible nationwide strike—will come out in the open Sunday.

The carriers will make their formal proposals for changing the rules that have governed railroad work for more than four decades.

The railroads call the work agreements "featherbedding," —forced payment for work not done or needed. They claim the practices they want to eliminate are obsolete and wasteful and cost them more than 500 million dollars a year.

Held "Essential"
The unions counter that the working rules are essential to insure safe and efficient railroad transportation. They claim that railroad workers have a higher record of increased productivity than any other class of workers.

The management proposals will reach union officials Monday or Tuesday. Industry spokesmen estimate that if neither side yields or compromises in later negotiations, a legal nationwide strike could be called by around next April 1. Dispute-handling provisions of the Railway Labor Act would prevent a legal walkout over the issue before that date.

If a nationwide strike is called, more than 800,000 railroad workers would be made idle.

Negotiations Deadlocked
Wage negotiations are deadlocked with three key unions. A walkout over this issue conceivably could come as early as next January if all settlement and delaying efforts fail.

The unions have demanded a 12 per cent pay boost and the carriers countered with a proposal they take a 15-cent hourly pay cut. A three-year moratorium expires Monday on the working rules affecting 210,000 employees engaged in the actual operation of the trains.

"Dead Serious"
Management planned its frontal attack on the wage agreements several months ago. Handley Wright, vice president of the Association of American Railroads, said the action was prompted by "dire economic necessity and we are dead serious."

The railroads have run large ads in newspapers across the country headed, "Railroad Featherbedding, $500,000,000 Loss Every Year—and It's Your Loss Too."

This management campaign has drawn the ire of union leaders. The Railway Labor Executives Assn. has planned a massive labor rally in Chicago Nov. 5 billed as

"rail labor's counterattack upon the industry's propaganda campaign."

Suggested Pay Cuts
The featherbedding charge is directed against the five unions whose members operate the trains—the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

Management's proposal for a 15-cent-an-hour pay cut was suggested to these unions and to 16 unions representing about 600,000 non-operating workers such as clerks, machinists and telegraphers.

Management says the average straight-time hourly earnings of railroad workers in June were $2.70, compared with $2.16 for workers in general manufacturing.

Last Strike In '46
If the work rules and wage disputes reach the National (railway) Mediation Board, the law requires that another 60 days elapse after they exhaust their efforts before a strike can be called.

The mediation board is seeking to settle the wage disputes involving the engineers, conductors, brakemen and switchmen.

The last nationwide strike was a three-day shutdown in May 1946. It ended when President Truman sized the railroads. He also seized the railroads to avert threatened strikes in 1948 and 1950.

SQUAD OFFICER SHOT BY DANCER

NEW YORK (AP)—A morals squad officer was seriously injured in a hotel room shooting during off-duty hours early Friday. A pretty young French-Algerian belly dancer told police she did it accidentally.

Investigators said Marvin Rosenberg, 33, was hit in the right side of the abdomen by a bullet from his own revolver.

The dancer, identified as Yasmina Ezersky, 24, was quoted as saying she picked up the pistol and pulled the trigger after Rosenberg had told her the safety catch was on.

Miss Ezersky said she had known Rosenberg for some time.

Met At Bar
She gave officers this account of the shooting episode:

"She met the policeman at a bar and after having a few drinks they went to her room in a West Side Manhattan hotel about 2 a.m. The officer removed his revolver and was about to put it in the

Fighter Pilot Is Ejected By Rocket

GEORGE AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—For the first time at this base a flier has been ejected upward from an F104 fighter plane by rocket catapult to escape when the craft crashed.

For sometime Lockheed Aircraft Corp. has been working to modify this plane, which formerly employed a downward ejection for a pilot who was bailing out.

Previously upward ejection was too dangerous because of the high tail of the plane.

George AFB officials said Friday that Capt. Robert F. Brockman, Davenport, Ia., flight leader in the 436th Tactical Fighter Squadron, ejected at 20,000 feet in the new way from his F104 Wednesday and parachuted without injury.

His plane crashed in the Mojave Desert. The cause of the crash has not yet been determined.

STASSEN IS CONFIDENT; DEMS CERTAIN

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Republican Harold E. Stassen, nationally known politician, is confident he'll win the Philadelphia mayoralty race next Tuesday.

But the Democrats don't give him much of a chance. They say he'll still be running after election day. They've already held a pre-election victory parade.

Stassen, former governor of Minnesota and disarmament advisor to President Eisenhower, has taken plenty of lumps in politics the last few years. He is regarded in many circles as a sturdy contender.

The Democrats held their traditional parade and rally Wednesday night in the 26th Ward in south Philadelphia.

Mayor Richardson Dilworth, endorsed by all three Philadelphia daily newspapers, has the full backing of Pennsylvania's Democratic national committeemen, Gov. David L. Lawrence, and Philadelphia's Democratic chairman, Congressman William J. Green Jr. Latest registration figures list 531,000 Democrats and 413,083 Republicans.

Dilworth is running on his first-term record. He has repeatedly charged that Stassen is seeking to be mayor only to further his real aspiration to become president of the United States.

Stassen promises if he is elected mayor he will stop what he calls a heavy migratory flow of Negroes from the South to Philadelphia. He has charged that under the Dilworth administration crime has spread and unemployment increased.

MRS. HURLEY 'DEPRESSED'

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—Ruth M. Hurley, president of the College of Divine Metaphysics, said Friday she was "very much depressed" by criticism of the school from Secretary of Education Arthur S. Flemming.

Flemming listed the college as one of what he called "enterprises illustrative of those that do a disservice to American education." He announced a government campaign to wipe out diploma mill operations and called them "persistent low-grade infections in the American education system."

"We're not doing academic work," Miss Hurley said. "We are attempting to help the student develop his spiritual conscience. We're more like a church."

Miss Hurley said a diploma in metaphysics costs $180 and one in divinity or psychology $120. She said the school averages about 50 new students a month.

drawer of the night table when they got into a conversation about it.

Rosenblum told her of the safety catch arrangement. She picked up the weapon and pulled the trigger. The gun discharged.

The officer, the father of one child, telephoned police headquarters to ask that an ambulance be sent for him.

SHAW REVIVAL STICKY GOING AS TV SHOW

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The nicest thing one can say of Thursday night's live Playhouse 90 is that a competent cast didn't have much to work with. It was a revival of "Misalliance," by George Bernard Shaw, and they shouldn't have.

Every playwright has his off moments and "Misalliance" was obviously written in some of Shaw's. It was a 1909 comedy, faithfully re-enacted and so full of plot that I still don't know what went on. Involved were a couple of elderly rips, two aggressive women and three spineless men. One lady was a tightrope walker and another the man-chasing daughter of an underwear manufacturer. There was a book-loving tradesman and a Fascist-minded aristocrat. And Shaw obviously was against what everybody represented — culture, force, weak men, strong women, even rebellious clerks.

Sticky Going
In spite of a double handful of Shavian wisecracks ("How dare you teach a man to read until you've taught him everything else?"), it was really very sticky going for 90 minutes.

Such stalwarts as Siobhan McKenna, Robert Morley and Claire Bloom all tried hard. But, honestly, resurrecting that old chestnut just wasn't fair to Shaw.

Trouble In CBS

Producers John Aaron and Jesse Zousmer, still furious at CBS President Frank Stanton's remarks about their Person to Person, will leave the show Nov. 13. They are sticking around and building a backlog of four shows. Zousmer says, only because of loyalty to Charles Collingwood, who was their candidate for the show's new host during Edward B. Murrow's current semisabbatical from television. Collingwood, is expected to stay with the show.

Frank Sinatra makes his return call on Dean Martin next Tuesday night on NBC... Rod Cameron, who is a law man in his own series, will play a hired killer in next week's Laramie episode... Alexis Smith, the real-life better half of Peter Gunn (Craig Stevens) will star in CBS' Nov. 18 Steel Hour drama... Next week's Big Party moves, as do most good ones, into the kitchen.

MADISON, N.J. (AP)—"I'm gonna quit this job 'cause my heart won't take it," said John Sullas as he delivered bread to the nearby Sayreville shopping center Thursday.

Sullas, 38, then walked from the store and got into his truck where he suffered an attack and died.

1964 World Fair In Vienna Or New York

WASHINGTON (AP)—After beating its American rivals, New York City now takes on Vienna in the scramble for the 1964 World Fair.

President Eisenhower recommended Thursday night that New York be picked as the site. Washington and Los Angeles had been the rivals.

The recommendation will be made to the International Bureau of Expositions, at its Paris meeting Nov. 3-4. The bureau also has a bid from Vienna.

Eisenhower announced the selection after a special committee, headed by Minneapolis businessman Harry A. Bullis, reported that it favored New York City.

Soviets Build Radio Telescope

LONDON (AP)—The Soviet Union reported Friday it is building a cross-shaped radio telescope with arms about 3,300 feet long.

The Soviet news agency Tass quoted a physicist as saying the instrument will make possible the study of radio emanations from "far beyond the limits of our galaxy."

Observations at similar vast distances already have been made by a round radiotelescope at Jodrell Bank, England.

Radiotelescopes are intended primarily for the study of radio waves generated by distant heavenly bodies called radio stars.

Boy, 5, Swallows Blade But Recovers

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A five-year-old Lancaster County boy who swallowed a piece of a razor blade Wednesday celebrated his recovery Thursday night with his first meal in 24 hours and a new toy.

Ricky Eselman of Lititz swallowed the sharp piece of metal after his mother placed it on a table when it broke while she was using it.

The child was taken first to Lancaster General Hospital, then to Temple University Hospital's Jackson Clinic. There he was kept under observation all day Thursday until the blade, which had been lodged in his upper esophagus, worked itself loose.

Rickey was delighted with the attention he received, and even more so with a bright red fire engine toy.

MAY QUESTION ERROL FLYNN'S PROTEGE'S MOM

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The district attorney wants to know how much Florence Aadland knew of her 17-year-old daughter's relationship to the late Errol Flynn.

The girl, blonde Beverly Aadland, raised some official eyebrows this week when she told a news conference she was disappointed in not having a child by the swashbuckling actor.

Dist. Atty. William B. McKesson said a parent who countenances a minor child's intimacy with an adult male could be charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor.

Had Traveled Widely
Mrs. Aadland insisted to newsmen Thursday that she had never seen anything to suggest that the actor and her daughter were intimate.

The girl and Flynn had been to Africa, France, Canada and Cuba during the past two years, the district attorney said, despite the fact that California law says persons under 18 must attend school.

Long Beach Is Fighting Water Trouble With Water

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—The city is battling a creeping catastrophe called subsidence. Under the watchful eye of Uncle Sam, is stepping up its campaign to fight water with water and keep the city from tilting into the sea.

The city is battling a creeping catastrophe called subsidence. Under the watchful eye of Uncle Sam, is stepping up its campaign to fight water with water and keep the city from tilting into the sea.

The federal government is concerned because its 170-million-dollar naval shipyard in the harbor has been sinking. The government has threatened to abandon it.

Are Optimistic
But there was a clear air of optimism as federal, state and city officials gathered Thursday to watch the opening of two powerful new water-pumping plants.

The city is pumping millions of gallons of sea water a day into the Wilmington oil fields that underlies the harbor and part of the city. This, in effect, is being done to refloat the land that is sinking from lack of sustaining fluid.

The two new pumping plants cost 2½ million dollars. They bring the total of these plants to eight and the daily capacity of water injection to 874,000 barrels through 93 wells.

Eventually the city and private operators plan to have 268 water-injection wells pouring a million gallons of water a day into the field.

Engineer M. A. Nishkian, who designed the pumping plants, said five years of pumping a million barrels a day would replace the fluid removed by oil drilling since 1936.

The subsidence has created a 20-square-mile saucer extending easterly in downtown Long Beach, where some large buildings have sunk two or three feet. The land has sunk 26 feet at the middle of the subsidence saucer.

ALLIES SHIFT ITS EUROPEAN DEFENSE MIGHT

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Western powers apparently have practically completed a shift in European defense emphasis from bombers to missiles. Two developments make this clear:

1. The United States has agreed to close down its four air bases and one naval base in Morocco.

2. The United States has reached an agreement with Turkey to set up an intermediate-range Jupiter missile base in that country, strategically located on Russia's border.

The issue of the American air bases in Moroccan soil has been politically explosive since the little North African kingdom gained its independence in 1956.

Plans To Withdraw

The Moroccans have long wanted the American forces withdrawn. The State Department announced that plans for the withdrawal have been presented to the Moroccan prime minister.

Negotiations for the missile base in Turkey, which will offset the loss of the Moroccan bases, have been under way for some time. Formal agreement was announced Friday.

The abandonment of the air bases follows a change in strategy that began in December 1957.

The Allied high command at that time decided to gradually shift emphasis from bombers, now becoming obsolete in the missile age, to rockets capable of carrying nuclear warheads.

Jupiter Bases in Italy

Two Jupiter bases are being set up in Italy. Four squadrons of the $1,500-mile Thor missiles are being delivered to Great Britain.

The Pentagon said Friday it was cutting down the number of Europe-bound Thor squadrons from five to four. The four in Britain remained unchanged. The fifth was to have gone to another country.

But France and West Germany have balked at having these missile bases established on their soil. Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev has made pointed threats about countries that harbor Allied missile bases. Greece also was approached, but nothing came of it.

At the same time the United States is steadily increasing its force of B-52 intercontinental bombers, which can be based in this country.

BLASTS START FIRES

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Three explosions, with the last the worst, shook homes on West Roosevelt Boulevard Friday and started fires which damaged five dwellings.

One woman was hospitalized suffering shock, and a fireman was cut on the hand fighting the flame. They were brought under control in 45 minutes.

YORK SPRINGS — The October meeting of the Bermudian Springs PTA, York Springs area, was held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the elementary school with the president, Mrs. Nettie Bowers, presiding.

The invocations were given by Rev. Amos Meyers. Mrs. Bowers announced that the meetings will be held on the fourth Tuesday of each month, with the exception of December, the date for which will be announced later. April will be kept open for the school opera. Members voted to give $3 and a banner to the home room having the most parents present at each meeting. The room of Miss Helen Hantz won this month with 12 parents present. Donations and volunteers are needed for the public turkey supper December 12 at the York Springs cafeteria. Proceeds will be used to purchase band uniforms. Those wishing to make donations or assist at the supper are asked to call Mrs. Harry Guise or Mrs. Nettie Bowers.

Mrs. Wm. Lott spoke on the Adams County Free Library and its needs. She said the Bookmobile "serves 16 branches and adult stations and 33 school stations each month. A book lasts only an average of 2 years in the Bookmobile and it has 8,133 borrowers, 52 per cent were children. They need greater rural services and a larger staff and more books. The library is county-owned and should be county-supported."

Rev. Meyers introduced the teachers present.

The Thanksgiving vacation will be from November 25 at noon through November 30. Elementary report cards will be given November 15. Christmas vacation will be from December 23 through January 1. He showed the architect's sketch of the new school and the progress being made.

The next meeting will be held on November 24 at 8 p.m.

Fire Traps Eight Men For 2 Hours

DANBY, VT. (AP)—Eight men were trapped two and a half hours in a marble quarry shaft Friday by a fire that destroyed a machinery building at the shaft entrance. They were rescued unharmed.

The men, trapped in a 1,500-foot shaft that tunnels into the hillside nearly horizontally, dropping only 25 or 30 feet through its length, moved deep into the shaft as smoke swirled in. They said they were able to stay in clear air under the smoke.

INDIAN FOR SENATE

INJURED MAN HAS FIGHT TO WALK AGAIN

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—It may be three years before Billy Smith can walk—and that isn't certain—but it's a miracle that he still has his right leg.

This is the substance of a report by two of the three surgeons at a news conference Friday. It was their 4½-hour operation that saved the 25-year-old laborer's limb July 22.

Smith's leg was crushed and severed when he was struck by a crane on a construction project. The surgeons, who requested anonymity, said he was brought to Eden Hospital so promptly and was in such healthy condition that they decided to try to graft the leg back.

The leg was severed three inches above the knee. Smith will be in the hospital for months. His leg is being held high to prevent clots. It will be about three years before the nerves grow back to the tip of his toes.

FORD WILL CUT PRODUCTION TO SAVE SUPPLIES

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co., second largest of the auto industry's big three, will seek to stretch rapidly dwindling steel supplies into December by cutting back on production and scheduling short work weeks.

Ford's move came as General Motors faced the virtual end of all auto output next week, GM, biggest of the auto firms, has laid off 185,000 of its 320,000 hourly rated workers and says thousands more will be sent home next week because of the steel strike.

Modification of production schedules to extend production and employment at least into December was announced Friday by Ford. The company said employees will be put on three and four-day weeks through November. Ford has 125,000 hourly rated employees.

Planned Five-Day Week

Original plans had been for Ford to run full five-day weeks until about the middle of November and then cease production. Ford makes about half of its own steel at its Rouge plant but certain kinds must be purchased.

Chrysler, the third member of the industry's big three, has laid off about 5,100 workers. Chrysler shut down its Dodge truck plant Friday and had been cutting down in other areas.

Present Chrysler layoffs are spread over 10 plants. The company's assembly plants will run only four days next week, except in Los Angeles.

American Motors, still operating six days a week, expects to continue at top output through November. Studebaker-Packard says it can stretch its supplies well into December.

DEATHS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LONDON (AP)—Walter E. Chamberlain, millionaire head of a group of building and engineering companies, died Friday in a plunge from his apartment. He was 65. Relatives said he was depressed due to ill health.

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Dr. O. F. Hume, 67, a former Republican national committeeman, died Friday. Hume also was a former state senator.

MASON CITY, Iowa (AP)—Leon S. Barnes, 65, prominent newspaper publisher, died Thursday night after a heart attack. He owned the Northwood Anchor and had newspaper interests in Iowa Falls, Monticello and Independence.

CHICAGO (AP)—Hazel Applegate, 70, one of the stars of the one and two-reel films turned out in movie infancy, died Friday of a heart ailment. She was the leading lady of "Bronco Billie," one of the first Western films.

NEW YORK (AP)—Louis Shattuck Cates, 77, board chairman of the Phelps Dodge Corp., died Friday. Cates, a native of Boston, was president of the firm from 1930 until 1947 when he became chairman. During those years, Phelps Dodge expanded into one of the world's largest copper producing companies.

RELEASED FROM PRISON

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Daniel Di Orto, head of a sea food company, was released from prison Friday after serving a month for treating fish with sodium nitrite.

Di Orto is president of the Universal Sea Food Co., which distributed the fish to retailers.

A boy in Haddon Heights, N. J., died after eating some of the fish last March. The illness of about 200 others was attributed to the same thing.

Di Orto was sentenced Sept. 30 for the one month term. His health is poor, his attorney said.

Volers of Cumberland Township DO YOU WANT GOOD ROADS AT LOW COST?

ELECT

FRANZ "Dutch" MARTIN

for Supervisor

Prior to my becoming a Supervisor in 1956, only 1.8 miles of the 33 miles of Cumberland Township roads were paved.

Since 1956 Your Supervisors Have:

Paved . . . . . 6.46 miles
Resurfaced and widened . . . 1.8 miles
Oiled and chipped . . . . . 3.7 miles

And in addition we have purchased modern equipment at a cost of $6,500.00.

All this has been done without increasing the tax of 4 mills (1/13 of your real estate tax), by far the lowest rate in Adams County, and despite the rising cost of materials and labor.

Our record has proven that we can improve your roads and still maintain the lowest tax rate in the county.

In the interest of honest, efficient and progressive operation, YOUR SUPPORT, YOUR INFLUENCE AND YOUR VOTE are respectfully requested.
